Sherman and Grant

The march of Sherman with an army of fifty thousand men through Georgia, his success upon the route and his final victory at Savannah were certainly great events and deserve doubtless the assertion of the London [illegible] that it was the most brilliant military move of modern times and would if successful place him on the roll of fame but be his ruin if he failed.

Success is the criterion of greatness and Sherman's success is an undoubted assurance that great minds have planned and have executed. Grant setting in his camp tent before Petersburg, as General in Chief of the Union armies. We have no reason to doubt that his mind plans campaigns, while his chosen Generals execute them. When we scan Sherman's late movements and his past campaigns, we must own that the march from Atlanta to Savannah, including the storming of Fort McAllister and capture of the city, was one of the most easily accomplished efforts he has made. The march from Chattanooga to Atlanta was accompanied by much more serious difficulties, and much more expense and loss of men and material. That campaign was a masterly effort of generalship, in which strategy out manœuvered a large and active hostile army compelling victory by his superior forces and superior generalship. Once at Atlanta, with Hood foolishly venturing into the forbidden territory of Tennessee to be annihilated by the cool strategy of Thomas and the valor of the Army of the Tennessee, there was not a show of opposition to offer Sherman on his triumphant progress to the coast and the details of the march come to us as a recounting of an immense pleasure trip taken by an army in force. If there is anything more especially remarkable about it, it is the praiseworthy vigilance with which his course was watched and his immediate ruin constantly predicted by rebel authorities and the rebel press.

Xerxes undertook a much more dangerous enterprise when he went with fleets and armies to conquer Greece, and a pretty mess he made of it, to be sure. Hannibal undertook far more, in his campaigns against the Romans. Napoleon on several occasions, made inroads into hostile territory where he was met at every step by foes, but none of these were opposed by telegraphs and railroads, or had the modern appliances of warfare to contend against.

We do not mean to say that these encountered greater difficulties than Sherman might have naturally expected to meet on the march from Atlanta to the coast with the road swarming with foes, with all the boasted strength of the Confederacy hurled in his path to oppose his progress and annihilate his power. The true secret of his success and the greatness involved in the attempt, or at least in its incipient stages, lay in the fact that the minds of Grant and Sherman comprehended a fact, and acting upon the belief they had, as Grant expresses it, that the rebellion was a shell, and that Sherman would break the shell and find it hollow, they planned a campaign that seemed almost madness, until progressing through the heart of Georgia, they found that their idea was correct, and that the shell was indeed hollow. Savannah is a great prize but the possession of Savannah gives the Federal army a great scope of country to command and opens the way to accomplish the downfall of Charleston.

Washington Territory Items.—The Olympia Democrat, of January 7th, says that a man by the name of Rice was robbed at Tumwater, on Tuesday evening last, of the sum of $1,000 in greenbacks, $100 in coin. The thief administered a strong dose of chloroform.

The British Colonist gives an account of the bark Mallory, which had most of her sails blown away by a gale, three weeks since off Columbia river, was compelled to make fair wind of it and return. After being out eighteen days, she made Neah Bay. The Cyrus Walker steamed down there last Friday to tow her up, but the Captain found that she had while there got on a rock, had her stern post and rudder carried away, and was water logged. She, with her cargo of lumber will be sold in a few days as she lies.

The English ship Frigate Bird, which sailed from Port Gamble a few days since, laden with lumber, 'touched bottom' somewhere and returned water-logged to Port Gamble.

The bark Flora [illegible] is at Port Angeles loaded with lumber for Australia.

The Washington Territory Legislature have passed the act to define the boundary of Pierce county, which the Governor had vetoed, by a vote much larger than the necessary two-thirds requisite to annul the veto.

The Washington Democrat rejoices that there are "MEN—high-minded men" left in America to read the proceedings of the Chicago Convention in its columns at this late day and weep over the ruin of the Democratic hopes. It also threatens to "speak the truth and shame the devil," which it should commence doing with caution as its friends wouldn't bear the truth told to any great extent. Indeed, it is not to be supposed they could believe the half of it.

Victoria Items.—We learn from the British Colonist that a new steamer to be named the Sir James Douglas built by Mr R Ewing for the English Government, was to be launched January 7th.

Three panthers were killed and two whelps captured alive at Cowichan Valley by hunters.

The Colonist figures up that the export of gold from that port (Victoria) for the past year amounts to $2,584 226 41 of which Wells Fargo & Co, as forwarders, carried $1,777 084 29.

Some one writing to the British Colonist makes complaint that the Colony of Vancouver Island is decreasing in population and recommends that the British Government send three thousand convicts to help them out and two thousand soldiers to watch them. That man has a poor idea of good society.

Muller, who murdered a man in an English railway car, was pursued to America and arrested, carried to England tried found guilty and condemned. The case excited uncommon interest from the singular nature of the offense. He persisted in his assertion of innocense until the moment of his execution when he confessed the deed to his spiritual adviser.

Letter from Auburn

Auburn, Ogn, Dec [illegible] 1864

WINTER IN THE MINES.

Winter has set in and we have considerable snow and a better prospect than ever before for a favorable year for water for 1865. If we have a fair supply of water, you may expect to hear of [illegible] lively times in the mines. Auburn is quiet and sociable as ever.

ELECTION REJOICINGS.

On the receipt of the news of Lincoln's election a torch light procession was [illegible] all the States were to be represented by ladies each carrying a flag with the name of a State inscribed upon it. The night however proved very disagreeable [illegible] regular wet [illegible] that the procession had to be indefinitely postponed. [illegible] riage and horses were [illegible] and the ladies from all quarters conveyed to the ball room where the dance was kept up in genuine Auburn [illegible]. A pave of planks was laid from the hall to the California Restaurant, where a sumptuous supper was prepared. All appeared to enjoy themselves, and the ball [illegible] pleasantly. The Auburn Artillery (blacksmiths' anvils) belched forth among the mountains the news that the American people were for the Union. On election day at Auburn [illegible] the best of us and all passed off quietly and when our time came it was [illegible]. In fact Auburn is a quiet sociable [illegible] place [illegible] of opinion that all the vexed questions [illegible]—peace or war, abolition or slavery—could be settled by a popular vote of [illegible] citizens without either bloodshed or hard words.

MAIL MATTER

has been studiously [illegible] in the way of mail service.

THE BAKER COUNTY QUOTA.

Through private enterprise we found out that Mr Lincoln was re elected, also inadvertently got a paper in which Gov. Gibbs has called for one thousand men, of which it appears the matter of fifty eight are to come from what was Baker county. We do not all of us understand the thing alike. We do however agree unanimously upon one thing and that is that we have sufficient population to justify Uncle Sam in giving us a mail. Having population sufficient to entitle us to mail service, and having population sufficient to spare fifty eight men as food for powder are two different things. As to the former we are well agreed, as to the latter it is now under consideration. The most perplexing thing about it is that all seem to want to go, yet appear to be waiting for each other.

The Union men do not want to go and leave the Democrats at home. No doubt for good reasons. The Democrats appear willing to go if the Union men go too, and urge the Union men to take the first leap.

If the proclamation could be so modified as to permit all men who would volunteer to fight whom they please where and when they please, choose their own weapons and quit when they please, why Gov. Gibbs might call for ten times the number and feel certain of Baker being on hand with her full quota. If we had had a semi weekly or daily mail here for a year or two, just possibly all of us might have got up to the fighting standard. However we are of opinion that Baker will have her full share in the one thousand men. As to mining news we have none of moment.

GIVES US AN IDEA.

Let me give you an idea that you no doubt have but which has never been fully acted upon by Oregon papers, and that is to give through your paper as much notoriety as possible to be consistent with truth, to foster and encourage mining operations. On an average there is not one column in any paper devoted to mining interests when at least one fourth of the paper should be. By doing so I am certain you can largely increase your circulation and by an increase of circulation that you will increase your advertisements greatly. It is the mines that the people and the world want to hear from, not only here in the mines but every where.

This country east of the mountains is the country, and the reputation of your paper established on this side as being devoted to mining interests, would greatly aid in substantial benefit to the paper. Hardly a paper comes in but we find more men inquire what news from Kootenai, Boise, Owyhee &c, than from the States. To foster and encourage to the utmost our local interests and mining, is one of the most important things to accomplish.

Yours, &c, W. H.

Letter from Lewiston

Lewiston, I T, Dec 26, 1864

Editor Oregonian

As I some time since promised I will now proceed to note a few items of current events that have transpired here during the past few days.

Since the adjournment of the Legislature, which was on the 23d inst., it is very dull here; there is no stir or anything of particular interest to a stranger or sojourner going on.

A little matter took place here a few days ago, which somewhat astonished the gentlemen from east of the mountains. This was the issuance of an injunction upon the Governor and Acting Secretary forbidding them removing the seal, laws and archives of the Territory from Lewiston to Boise City, where the Capital was located by the late Legislative Assembly. The grounds of all this is alleged to be the illegality of the House of Representatives denominating it an illegal assemblage of people "assuming" to enact laws for the people of this Territory, and therefore the laws purporting to have passed that body are alleged to be null. Now this is but one of the desperate struggles of the Copperhead politicians about this place to bring contempt if possible on the Union party of this Territory. Judging from the start this Territory is now making she will eclipse Oregon in legislative manœuvering. They also threaten to enjoin the Territorial Treasurer from paying any warrants drawn on him for extra compensation to officers of this Territory, including the members of the Legislature. What all this will amount to remains yet to be seen, but it appears very much to me like a magnificent farce.

This portion of the Territory feels very much embittered toward the southern and eastern portion; they desire to be cut off from that portion and annexed to a slice to be carved from the northern portion of Washington Territory. A memorial praying Congress for such a division was introduced into the Legislature but failed in the Council. They say that if this had been allowed to pass they would not have called to their aid the equitable interference of the court to enjoin the removal of the property to the Capital.

On the last days of the session three or four "good Democrats," (?) by downright dishonesty and lying succeeded in getting up a joint convention of both branches of the Legislature under pretense of having a bill to special enrollment and then thinking they had the majority over the Union members they introduced a set of resolutions condemning the Federal Government and every Federal appointee in this Territory together with Capt Mathews, of the Lapwai post. After listening to a tirade of noise and low vulgar vituperation from the Councilman from Idaho county, the President of the convention, John Cummins of Owyhee, told them that the means resorted to to get this convention were dishonorable, that they had misrepresented the facts to the Union members of the Council and that he would not by any means preside over a convention under any such circumstances. He immediately withdrew followed by the Hons Capp Miller and Smith. This broke up a quorum in the convention, so they did not make much of the affair. In fact for the last ten or twelve days of the session the Cops have been doing all in their power to manufacture political capital for the next campaign.

The weather has moderated considerably. The snow and ice is quite all gone and everything has much the appearance of spring.

The holidays are passing off almost unobserved. It is certainly the dullest Christmas I have spent in any country.

While writing Major Truax arrived in town from Boise with his family. He looks well and hearty.

Two or three of the members of the late Legislature, who are now here, will visit your town in a few days—John Cummins of Owyhee is among the number. He is now detained as counsel in favor of the Governor and Secretary in the Capital suit.

Well more anon. Yours, SPECTATOR

Salem, Jan 10.—An attempt was made last night to enter the store in Holman's brick building occupied by Government for Quartermaster's stores. The robber or robbers succeeded in breaking the lock on the iron door, but failed to secure an entrance.

A Miser's Hoard.

Nothing very definite has yet been developed in regard to the murder and robbery of Daniel Delaney. Circumstances tend to prove that the perpetrators, three in number, were familiar with the locality and that they had had the deed in view for months past. A record [illegible] by Mr Delaney showing different localities where he had secured his money was found in his house, and on searching the sum of sixty four thousand dollars in gold was discovered. The robbers only received about six thousand dollars as the reward of their double crime.

The Delany Murder at Salem.—The telegraph on Tuesday brought us the news of a horrible murder near Salem. Mr Daniel Delany, Sr, on the day above mentioned, was called out of his house in the night, shot down dead upon the porch by two men who were masked and his house searched throughout and robbed of about six thousand dollars in gold. There are circumstances connected with this bloody deed that make it a matter of peculiar interest and render it certain that the persons who committed it were well acquainted with the premises and had plotted the deed deliberately and carefully. Mr Delany was from Missouri to Oregon at a very early day. He had resided on his farm for many years, having been long there in 1852 when the writer became acquainted with him. His farm was made up probably the richest piece of bottom land on Mill Creek prairie while his house was built at a beautiful spring on a hill side surrounded by its orchard and closet in a dense forest of fir. Through the prairie about one mile to the north of him went the Mill Creek road to the Santiam, while the hill road lay about a mile to the south. There was no direct road past or near the premises, and although there were many farms in sight on the edge of the hills, still the place was isolated and fitly adapted to the perpetration of such a deed. Probably Mr. Delany lived alone with the mulatto lad who was alarmed by the murder and hid him off until the morning. Several of his sons lived within a few miles. Mrs Delany who was very aged and decrepid living with one of them. The ruling passion of the old man's life was the acquisition of gold. He denied himself every luxury and even the common necessaries of life and was supposed many years since to have fabulous stores of it laid up. All his sons were energetic and prosperous, none of them had any idea of the old man's possessions though several of them told the writer that he must have a great deal of money laid by. The murderers do not [illegible] have found [illegible] the [illegible] dollars [illegible] great bulk of the old man's treasure [illegible] than he had anticipated [illegible] made a record of the places where his money was hid [illegible] following the directions here laid down. The dispatch tells us that yesterday sixty four thousand dollars was found [illegible] making, with the sum taken by the murderers, seventy thousand dollars that this strange old man had saved up in his life time.

THE THEATRE BLOCK SUITS.—In the Circuit Court of the United States the last of the Theatre block cases was tried yesterday. Besides the one we noticed a few days since, there was one against Francis Dekum, one against Thomas A. Davis and one against Isaiah A. Austin. The verdicts under the instruction of the Court were for the plaintiff John T. Hall, in each case. The proof in each case consisted wholly of judicial records and official and private writings. The Court instructed the jury that it was the province of the Court to construe these writings and declare to them the legal effect thereof, and they must be governed by such construction and effect in forming their verdict. That the legal effect of these writings was to show that the plaintiff had the legal estate in the premises, which would entitle him to prevail in this action against the mere possession of the defendants. The Court held that the donation act granted the land to settlers, and that a donation certificate was evidence of the facts therein stated, and the legal effect of the certificate to Lownsdale was to show that he had an estate in fee simple in his donation claim from the date of his settlement thereon.

THEATRE.—"Leah the Forsaken," a finely written drama, was produced at Willamette Theatre last evening. The action of it is supposed to have taken place in Austria about two hundred years ago, when persecution against the Jews was rife. It is an intensely interesting play, and the performers must be very perfect in their parts before the piece can move smoothly. The actors last evening did very well. The part assumed by Mrs. Payne, of the Jewish maiden Leah, has many dramatic features which requires much effort in their execution, especially where she revokes her curse and prays God to change it to a blessing. The piece has been played here before, but not with such effect as that of last night. "East Lynne, or the Elopement," with a favorite farce, is put down for this evening.

FINE FRUIT.—Through Mr. Davidson of this office, the printers are indebted to the family of Mr. Samuel Brown of Belpassi, for a large basket full of excellent fruit, which it is a pleasure for us to acknowledge. The token is one of kindred esteem, in which has shared the little prattling Dolcena, scarce five years of age, and when we touch upon the small sized apples which were her selection, we breathe a sweet whisper for her protection and a desire that she may ever be guided in a knowledge of the true worth of friendship. It is a pleasure to enjoy the affection of little ones, and we would not give the rind of one of those little apples for the reputation of that man who would not reciprocate the affection. But we did propose to say something of the fruit, which is certainly a very desirable lot, such as Oregon delights to produce, but we shall be obliged to leave that to Messrs. Shelby & Baker who have just received the last of 1,000 boxes from the same orchard.

A FUR AUCTION.—The auction sale of furs by Mr. Richardson was well attended yesterday, and the bidding quite animated. Several items of interest were noticed during the progress of the sale, one of which amused the bidders much. Mr. R.'s consignor was present, wearing a splendid fur coat, and when some of the articles were "gone" at a low price, the rage of the old gentleman was intense, and the hair on his coat almost perceptibly stuck out like the quills of a fretful porcupine. At this juncture of affairs Mr. R. placed his hand on the fur coat, and smoothed it down gently, pacifying the wearer in his usual good natured style, until the old gentleman was prepared to let the sale go on, even at a sacrifice, as the season for furs was somewhat advanced. Owing to the extent of the lot the sale was continued this morning, at which time the highest cost articles will be offered.

THE WILSON G. HUNT.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt, which was disabled by an accident recently, is still lying at the O. S. N. Company's wharf in this city, undergoing repairs. This steamer has been in almost constant use for fifteen years, was built in New York, is a real North River boat, and after the lapse of that space of time, during which her paddles have stirred up the waters in two oceans and a number of prominent rivers, it is a matter of surprise that the late inspection of her hull, by U. S. Inspector Gates, reveals the fact that she is solid, and nearly as good as when new. The Company were very fortunate when they secured the Hunt, and having "paid for herself" over and again, stands in a fair way of doing so several times more. The Julia, Capt. Strang, is making regular trips to the Cascades during the temporary stopping of the Hunt.

STRUCK BOTTOM.—Workmen and teams have been engaged in digging up and removing the mud on Front street, for two days past. They struck bottom in that section between Alder and Morrison streets yesterday, and found it to be very firm in places. The "surface diggings" are rich, and would make and excellent article of compost for the public plaza. One permanent improvement would be better than all the paddling, digging, and removing of filth, and we hope to see both Front and First streets, with the main business cross streets, each and all start in for repairs of some kind shortly.

THE FIRST WATER.—In our reference to the fire on Tuesday morning we stated that the credit of throwing the first stream of water was claimed by Companies 1 and 3, which was true. The decision has awarded it to Columbian No. 3. The department have nothing to regret, and it is a satisfaction to us all that such implicit reliance can be placed upon the firemen. Mr. T. G. Young, Foreman of No. 3 has given us a statement upon which is based the credit due to his Company, and which we believe is fair and impartial. If No. 1 claims any pretention to the first stream they are mistaken, and must refer to the second attachment to 3's engine. Mr. Sharkey had distinguished himself previous to that.

BROKE THROUGH.—One of Bills & Co.'s drays, loaded with the usual amount of freight, broke through the planking of Stark street yesterday, and a scene similar to the "Stage-ing days" when Iowa was a Territory, ensued. Scantling, (rails not being convenient,) were brought into requisition, and after much prying and lifting the dray was got out. A new difficulty was then presented —the horse, which had been worried considerably, refused to pull his burthen, and it was some time before the excitement abated. A crowd of bystand watched the vexations proceeding and surveyed the "situation."

THANKS.—Messrs. Opitz, Sharf & Schran, proprietors of the Bakery establishment adjoining the corner of Washington on First street, desire to acknowledge their obligation to Chief Engineer Buchtel, and the fire department generally, for the efficient services rendered, which saved so much of their property from utter loss at the late fire. Also, to Mr. White, for clothing kindly furnished temporarily to one of our firm, whose own was destroyed by the fire.

THICK.—Weather very thick. Last night we had a fog that would have done a Londoner credit. We will stake our reputation on weather predictions that no housewife need be disappointed in the laundry duties of her home to-day, if she sets to washing right away after breakfast, the clothes will be dry before four o'clock P. M. McCormick's Almanac assisted this prediction.

DEPARTURE COMMITTED.—John Gilman was the only unfortunate, "rashly importunate," whom his Hon. Judge McCoy was called to pass sentence upon yesterday. Two charges, one for violation of the statutes, and one for disregard of ordinance, were preferred against him, on each of which a fine of $50 and costs were imposed, in default of which he was committed to the county jail.

COMMERCIAL.—The bark Industry is receiving a cargo for San Francisco, and will leave in tow of the steamer John H. Couch to-morrow morning. The freight was taken from drays as fast as it could be stowed away yesterday, and consists of wheat principally, with considerable of potatoes and mill feed. The ship will carry a large and valuable cargo.

IT IS AMAZING TO WITNESS the perfection to which Sewing Machines have been brought at the present day, and the unlimited variety of work which can be performed by one at least, of the many styles before the public. We have been astonished of late, at the effect which the present fashion has produced in the elegant and delicate embroidery and braiding which forms so beautiful a trimming for the garments of our lady friends. How is it done? How is it possible, in so short a time, for such an immense amount of embroidery to be executed as has made its appearance of late? One answer was, that with a Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine anything was possible: that it would embroider or braid as rapidly as it would sew, and to trim a garment in the "height of fashion" was a fascinating pleasure unknown to any but the fortunate possessor of this marvelous machine.

LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of
SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCERS,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increase nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal, being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder and urethra of the Kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, restores and sustains them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its cleansing and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nourished by it a healthy frame. Does the function of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver destroy it? Ask how the digest on may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system. By exciting the secretions or excretions giving tone to the gastric juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every fibre of nerve, muscle and tissue, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females;

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S

PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance."

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S

SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

A Whimbamper and Lion Fight at the Menagerie.

The menagerie was in town. A rare occurrence was an exhibition of wild beasts, lions, tigers, polar bears and ichneumons, in Baltimore at the early days of which we are writing, yet they came occasionally, and this time was visited by old Nat Wheatly, a jolly, weather-beaten boatman, well known in Baltimore as an inveterate joker, who never let any one get to the windward of him. He was furthermore, a stutterer of the first class.

Nat visited the menagerie. As he entered, the showman was stirring up the monkeys, and tormenting the lion, giving elaborate descriptions of the various propensities and natural peculiarities of each and all.

"This, ladies and gentlemen, this, I say, is the Afrikin Lion. A noble beast he is, ladies and gentlemen; is called the King of the Forest. I have often heard that he makes nothing of devouring young creatures of every description, when at home in the woods. Certing it is that no other beast can whip him."

"M-m-mister!" interrupted Wheatly, "do you say he c-c-an't be w-w-whipped?"

"I duz," said the man of the lions, tigers and bears.

"What w-will you b-bet I c cant fetch a critter what will whip him?"

"I ain't a bettin' man at all; but I don't object to take a small bet to that same effect."

"I'll bet I ca-can fetch something that whip him. What say you to a h-hundred dollars?"

Now there were several merchants in the crowd who knew Wheatly well, and were fully convinced that, if the bet were made, he was sure of winning, so that he had no difficulty in finding "backers," one of whom told him he would give him ten gallons of rum if he won.

The menagerie man glanced at his lion. There he crouched in his cage, his shaggy mane bristling, and his tail sweeping, the very picture of grandeur and majesty. The bribe was tempting, and he felt assured.

"Certing, sir, certing; I have no objection to old Hercules taking a bout with any cretur you may fotch."

"V-v-very w-well," said Nat, 'that is a bet."

The money was planked up, and the next night was designated for the terrible conflict. The news was spread over Baltimore, and at an early hour the boxes of the spacious theatre were filled—the pit being cleared for the anticipated fray.

Expectation was on tip-toe, and it was with great impatience that the crowd awaited the arrival of Wheatly. He at length entered, bearing a large bag or sack on his shoulders, which, as he let it fall, was observed to contain some remarkably hard and heavy substance. The keeper looked on with indignation.

"Where's your animal?" inquired the keeper.

"Th-th-there," said Nat, pointing with his finger at the bag.

"Well, what is it?" asked the man, with increased astonishment.

"Th-th-that, ladies and gentlemen," said Nat, gesticulating like the showman, "is a wh-wh-wimbamper!"

"A whimbamper!" echoed the keeper. "That is certainly a new feature in zoology and anatomy. A whimbamper! Well, let him out and clear the ring, or Hercules may make a mouthful of both of you."

The keeper was excited. Accordingly Nat raised the bag, holding the aperture downwards, and out rolled a huge snapping turtle while the cheers and laughter of the audience made the arches ring.

"There he is," said Wheatley, as he tilted the "whimbamper" over with both hands, and set him on his legs. The snapper seemed unconscious of his peril.

Wheatly was about leaving the ring, when the keeper swore that his lion should not disgrace himself with fighting with such a pitiable foe.

"Very well," said Nat, "if y-y-you choose to give me the hundred dollars—"

"But it is unfair!" cried the indignant showman.

The audience interposed and insisted upon the fight. There was no escape, and the showman reluctantly released the lion, making himself secure on the top of the cage.

The majestic beast moved slowly around the ring, shuffling and lashing, while every person held his breath in suspense. Lions are beasts, and this one was not long in discovering the turtle, which lay on the floor, a large, inanimate lump. The lion soon brought his nose in close proximity to it, which the turtle not liking, popped out his head and rolled his eyes, while a sort of wheeze issued forth from his savagerous mouth. The lion jumped back, turned, and made a spring at the turtle, which was now fully prepared for his reception. As the lion landed on him, the turtle fastened his terrific jaws on the lion's nostrils, rendering him powerless to do harm; yet with activity of limb he bounded around the circle, growled, roared, and lashed himself, but the snapper hung on, seeming to enjoy the ride vastly.

"G-go it, whimbamper!" cried Wheatly from the boxes.

The scene was rich. The showman was not less enraged than the lion. Drawing a pistol, he threatened Nat that if he did not take his turtle off he would shoot him.

"Ta-ta-take him off yourself!" shouted Nat in reply.

At this critical moment, by dint of losing a portion of his nose, the lion shook his dangerous foe from him, and clearing the space between himself and the cage with a bound, he slunk quietly in to chew the cud of his defeat and pain.

It was a fair fight, all declaring that the "whimbamper" was the victor. The next morning he carried his turtle to the Marsh market and sold him. So this valiant champion, after conquering the king of beast, served to make a good dinner for Baltimore epicures.

Modern Cynicism.—Here is a dialogue between a lady of fashion and Monsieur Guizot:

My dear Mr. Guizot, you seem weary with everything, as if your heart and mind and spirit were fatigued. How is this? What can you desire? For years you have occupied the the thoughts of Europe, inspired your name in history, and been a king of men and leader of monarchs. In your retirement you are honored and illustrious. Then whence this lassitude, this sadness, this hypochondria? Are you ill?

'No, madam, but I would forget.'

'Forget!'

'Yes, I would tear a thousand pages from out the book of my life—pages filled with the records of others, but which neither gave nor give me happiness.'

'Is it possible you can be dissatisfied with your magnificent career?'

'Were my time to come over again, (it must be recollected that this anecdote comes directly from the lady who made the avowal) 'and I were free to choose my lot, I would be a man without either political or social duties, responsible but for my own conduct, without too many relations or friends, without any endowments of talent, but simply those of common sense, without nerves, and with a good digestion and a little egotism, entirely without ambition, living on a modest, solid independence, drawn, I say, from rents in the Boulevards of Paris, or Regent street, in London; so that I could be a calm, unimpassioned, disinterested spectator of passing events.'

'Then,' asked the lady, 'what would be your dream, your desires, your employment, your pastime?'

'To see the passions and agitations of others. As for glory—Pah!'

And this is the verdict of a man who has known all and seen all—who has taken a bird's eye view of empires from the lofty heights of his own genius.

From the army Hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

Richmond, Wis., Sept. 16, 1864.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. A. FLAUTE."

"North Warsaw, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who has been sick and not out of the house for two years with scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WORNALL."

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-seventh St., }
New York, August 2, 1863. }

"Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Productive Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

To the Tax Payers of Multnomah Co.

HAVING visited the different precincts for the purpose of collecting taxes, notice is hereby given that I will be at the court house from and after this date until the 20th day of January, A. D. 1865, for the purpose of receiving taxes. I call attention to the law in relation to the collection of taxes passed at the last Legislature, making it the duty of the Sheriff to collect all taxes assessed for county and State purposes, and make his return by the 1st day of February ensuing. All taxes unpaid at that time will be collected as upon execution, including mileage, &c.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the Prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and All Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY ARE SO NUMERous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates, of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is noted upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed, and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
